This Week's Learning

Nursery children read 'Charlie Crow in the Snow' together. They talked about the signs of winter and looked for them in the Nursery garden.

Reception children read 'The Star Maker's Apprentice' together and used their developing phonic knowledge to write a sentence about a wish they might have. In Art, children painted their own versions of Starry Night by the artist Vincent Van Gogh.

School Club Reminder

Next week is the last week of school clubs for this term. Thank you to the staff for offering a wide range of activities for the children.

EYFS Christmas Performances

Performances take place in the School Hall;

Reception - 10th December 2pm

Nursery - 11th December 9am

Two family members per child are welcome to join us for performances, which will last no longer than 30 minutes. Pushchairs to be left outside for the safety and comfort of all.

FoH Christmas Shopping Day

Next Friday children will visit the special Christmas Market in the hall to purchase two small gifts for their family. They will have a drink and snack and Father Christmas will be visiting too! Please send children into school with a shopping bag and £2 to purchase their gifts.

FoH Festive Bake Sale

Donations for the after school Bake Sale on Friday can be made via the school office during the day. Please provide ingredient lists and name your containers.

Jewellery Sale

We have been gifted some handmade jewellery to raise funds for school. This will be for sale alongside the Bake Sale next Friday. Items are priced 50p to £5 and make for lovely Christmas presents. This stall is cash only.
